AMARCHY'S CLOSING SCENE.

Lange, the most desperate and ferocious of the entire gang of Chicago Anarchists, chested the gallows to-day by nearly killing himself. That he should have been able to secure a bomb at this stage of the proceedings, is a severe reflection upon the loose methods of the jailers.

This sensational development will increase If possible, the interest of all Christendom in the closing scenes of the tragedy of Anarchism enacted at Chicago.

It is not strange that London, Berlin, Paris and St. Petersburg look on with anxious concern. The dynamite movement was born of Old-World tyranny. It is a desperate reaction against evils that do not exist here. It is well that it should be stamped out, and nothing will do it more effectively than to let justice take her course in Chicago.

THE WORLD presents, as is its wont, the fullest and most graphic report of the present phases of this remarkable feature of nineteenth century civilization.

THE BOODLE TRIALS.

Col. FELLOWS reiterates to a WORLD re porter that he will " try the Boodle cases in such order and as promptly as the importance of each case and the interests of public justice shall demand."

Good! Shall CLEARY OF SHEILS come first to the bar under this rule?

We do not doubt that Col. FELLOWS means what he says. But neither he nor the public yet realizes the full effect of the rejection. by the voters, of the man who more than any other personified the purpose to push these

We do not like to predict that not another Boodle Alderman will be convicted. But we put upon record the belief that as a result of this election if will be found extremely difficult, if not impossible, to obtain another conviction in Grese cases.

Time will tell.

BABBLING THE TRUTH.

Even that form of childhood known as senility sometimes verifies the proverb as to those who speak the truth.

The editor of the Sun babbled the truth in this fashion when he advertised his dotage by confessing that his reason for abandoning the support of Nicoll " relates to The World itself." He has just blurted it again in whining to the editor of THE WORLD: "We wish that you had never come to New York."

"Pity the sorrows of a poor old man." He no longer knows how to lie with plausibility or to tell the truth with discretion.

The Manhattan "L" has just held what is known as an election.

It does not appear how many voters participated in this remarkable contest. Nor does it matter, for shekels, not men, controlled the polls. The United Plutocracy in the field swept everything before it. Of course a ringing series of resolutions were adopted by the directors, indorsing themselves and heartily approving their past policy. Armed with this indorsement, they naturally did not hesitate to unanimously re-

The entire proceedings would be uniquely outrageous if not so familiar. Here is a publie highway, built in the public streets, dependent upon the public for its existence, its privileges, its patronage, its enormous dividends on its real cost. And yet the public has hardly a word to say about its management or mismanagement.

If this is not a legalized outrage, will some one please tell us what would be?

A TRIBUTE BOTH WAYS.

Mr. NICOLL ran behind in every district where the Boodle Aldermen and their friends control politics. He ran ahead in every district where their influence was not

His analysis of the returns is most instruc tive. In CLEARY's district he got but 1,199 out of 6,000; in Kran's, 841 out of 6,650; in O'NEIL's, 1,882 out of 6,450; in SHEILS's, who presided at a Fellows meeting, only 1,487 out of 8,800; in JARRERE's, with the "boss" in Bing Sing, 1,607 out of 6,560; in FARLEY'S, 1,891 out of 7,528, and so on.

In Mr. Nicola's own district, GRANT had majority, while Nicota's majority was 1,700-" an indorsement by ' the jury of the re,' of which I have a right to be proud," he said. In Boss Powns's district, MICOLL ran 600 ahead of the Republican ticket. In all the better districts the record was the same. NICOLL received at least 25,000 of the best Democratio votes an indorsement to be proud of.

OPEN THE DOORS.

Is it the Metropolitan Museum? Or is it the Puritanic Museum? If it is to be controlled by narrow Puritanic notions, let us change the name. But if it really is the Museum of the metropolis let it be conducted in accord with the almost unanimous sentiment of the people.

Open the doors on Sunday.

Are the treasures of art within its walls inended for the delectation of the few or for the benefit of the many? If it is meant to be the people's Museum, as is undoubtedly the ease, then make it accessible to the toilers on the only day that they can visit it.

Open the doors on Sunday. Many excuses have been made why this annot be done. None of them are adequate. The time is ripe for a more liberal policy. If any loan collection is in the way send it home. If the Trustees doubt the tone of public sentiment THE EVENDO WORLD will enable them to learn what the people wish. Open the doors on Sunday.

MRS. CLEVELAND AT BRIDGEPORT.

It is a very kindly and characteristic act on the part of Mrs. CLEVELAND to come all the way from Washington to Bridgeport to assist in the dedication of a home for working girls. Moreover, it is pleasant to note that Mrs. CLEVELAND declines to allow the "society ' of Bridgeport to take up her time or interfere with the distinctive purpose of her visit. Two thousand working women are waiting to see her, and she will devote herself to them exclusively.

Mrs. CLEVELAND could not pass her time a Bridgeport in better "society" than that of honest working women, or among those with a higher appreciation of her charming quali-

Mr. FELLOWS will now have an opportunity which any public man might covet—that of disapointing his foes and critics by a clean, efficien and uncompromising administration of his office. -

THE WORLD has already expressed the hope that he will make the most of it. But Mr. FELLows has another opportunity-that of disappointing about 75 per cent. of the men who voted for him in the belief that he would be "easy" on law-breakers. We hope he will be equal to that also.

The accuracy of THE WORLD's election returns, surpassing those of all its esteemed contemporaries, is attested by the police returns. The vote for Cook was given in a 9 o'clock edition of THE WORLD at 110,272. The collected police returns make it 110,781. Some of the other papers had it 10,000 too small. The other World figures were more complete and correct than anything given on Wednesday morning.

THE WORLD is shead with the news ever time. It was the first paper to spread the story on the street to-day that Anarchist Lange had been nearly killed in his cell by a bomb. It is hardly necessary to add that the first news from Chicago to-morrow will appear promptly in extra editions of THE EVENING WORLD

DAN LAMONT hits the bull's-eye close to THE WORLD'S shot when he says: "I do THE WORLD'S shot when he says: "I do not see how the Republicans can hope to carry New York now. For anything I may know, Mr. King is not to leave the Baltimore and Ohio. He is one of the brightest men in the railroad service in the United States. His work for the Baltimore and

His work for the Baltimore and Ohio in its efforts to get into Philadelphia was wonderful, being both intelligent and effective. I feel confident that the snydicate will have nothing to say in the selection of the official list. It wants the road operated in an intelligent manner, knowing that if it is it will pay. Mr. Gorman, I hardly think, will be in the new directory.

He is anxious to get the bed of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal from Cumberland to Washington, in order to let in the West Verginia Central and Pittsburg road to Washington and Baltimore. It will not go his way for some time yet, however. The Baltimore and Ohio future is brighter now than ever. It will get into New York over the Reading and Bound Brook route, and become one of the best of the lines east of the Mississippi. The present complications will be safely disentangled, and the road will be all that its brightest prospects ever promised."

GEN. TRUMBULL BEFORE OGLESBY.

An Earnest Appeal in Behalf of the Con

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 10.-Following Gen. Trumbull's speech before Gov. Oglesby in behalf of the condemned Anarchists: 'May it please Your Excellency, as an old soldier who has fought with you on the battlefields of the Republic, ask permission to say one word on the side of clemency. What I have to say about the fairness or unfairness of this trial. I have said in a little pamphlet which Your Excellency does me the honor to say you have already read. Yet I simply wish to add one appeal for mercy. Three weeks, ago in the city of Chicago, was unveiled the statue of Abraham Lincoln, and the orators told us then that mercy was the crowning glory of Lincoln's majesty. Your Excel-lency, you were Mr. Lincoln's friend, your name is now history, friend, your name is now history, and it must go down to posterity in company with his and like his. I hope to see it connected with the same holy blessings because of magnanimity and mercy. When our children unveil your statue, as they will some day, I believe the orators of that day will say, as the orators in the city of Chicago said three weeks ago, that the characteristics of the martyred President and your characteristics resemble one another, and that mercy was the crowning glory of your magistrature as it was of Abraham Lincoln. In behalf of the same in the shalf of the of Abraham Lincoln. In behalf of the families of these men, in behalf of the men themselves, in behalf of thousands and hundreds of thousands of people who sympa-thize with them in their misfortunes, I im-plore Your Excellency to show mercy in this

The more perfect the Metropolitan becomes as an art gallery the stronger grows the feeling that its doors should be opened on Sundays. Nothing can be clearer than that an Institution for the benefit of the public should be made accessible to the public. Without doubt the Museum authorities, in setting apart certain days on which no fee should be charged for admission, selected those days with some consideration for the convenience of the public. There seems to be no sufficient reason why the day of the week on which people can best come is not one of those on which the museum is thrown open. That the Metropolitan Museum will admit the public to its exhibits on Sundays at no very distant time seems evident. It rests with the trustees to draw the bolt which bars the doors to Sunday visitors.

An Evening World reporter called on Gen. Louis P. di Cesnola, Director of the Museum, and Prof. William H. Goodyear, Curator of the Department of Paintings, to see what their views were on this point.

"If you ask my own personal feeling in the matter," said Gen. di Cesnola, "I am in favor of the Sunday opening. I have always been in favor of it. I was brought up in Italy, and all my visits to museums were made on Sundays. The views of the trustees on the point are their own, of course."

"Now, as director of the Museum," continued Gen. di Cesnola, "I can only say that if the Museum is to be opened on Sundays the additional expense for this must be defrayed. The building of the new wing and other outlays have considerably increased our expenses. The Museum should be endowed. If there were money enough, I would open it on Sundays, light the gas and give a free lunch," he added, pleasantly.

"The money for running the museum is chiefly drawn from private contributions. There is need of a permanent fund. The work and the expenses of the Museum are increasing yearly. This coming year they will be heavier than ever, owing to the new wing. About forty-two men are necessary for the work of the Museum. Catalogues have to be printed, cases have to be made, the building has to be heated, and so on. All these things cost money, and the meny individuals the Sunday open propriation, and in consideration of this the public is admitted free four days in the week. The additional sources of revenue are the admission fees on the two pay days, the sale of catalogues and the income from invested funds, which last year was $7,780. This is not enough."

Some of the trustees are opposed to the Sunday opening, others, and they are the Larger number, are in favor of it.

SCATTEREL BY A MAD DOG.

The Right Policeman on Hand after Two Boys Had Been Bitten.

A number of children who were playing in East Twenty-sixth street on Wednesday afternoon scattered in terror at appearance of a mad dog that dashed among them, snarling and snapping right and left. James McWonand, four years old, of No. 219 East Twenty-sixth street, and Thomas Monks, thirteen years old, of No. 436 Second avenue, were not quick enough and were bitten on the leg. The McWonand boy had reached his home and was making boy had reached his home and was making a desperate effort to run up the stoop when the sharp fang of the cur punctured the fleshy part of his leg.

Policeman Michael Offeldt arrived at this moment, drew a revolver, took good aim, and put a bullet in the dog's body, bringing him down. Two more well-directed bullets in the brain killed the beast. The two bitten boys were removed to a dis-pensary, where their wounds were cauter-ized. Then they were sent home.

ELEVATED RAILROAD FIGURES. (early Half a Million Tickets Dropped in the Boxes Daily. The annual business statement of the Manhattan Railway Company contains some interesting statistics. For instance, in round numbers one hundred and fifty-nine millions of nickels were passed in to the ticket sellers for fares, and that number of "pink trip slips" were dropped into the ticket boxes on the four elevated roads. This means that nearly half a million, or, to be exact, 485,000, passengers are carried daily.

Of course the Third avenue line does more Of course the Third avenue line does more business than any of the others. It carried 66,575,454 passengers last year, or about 182,000 every day. That was more than twice the business of the Second avenue line, a third more than the Sixth avenue line did, four times as much as was done by the Ninth avenue line, and more than was done by the Sixth and Ninth avenue lines together.

The gross income of the Manhattan was $8,102,662; operating expenses, $4,970,449 and net income, $3,132,212.

TWO FIREMEN INJURED.

A Hook and Ladder Truck Upset in Turning Too Sharp a Curve.

While returning from a chimney fire at the residence of Mr. Charles C. Pomeroy, 3 East Thirty-fourth street, early this morning, Hook-and-Ladder Truck No. 2 was upset at Fifty-first street and Fourth avenue. The men seated on the ladders were thrown violently to the ground and two were injured. James Sattler, foreman, escaped with a gash on the head and some severe bruises, but William Dennis, the driver, broke his knee-cap. He held on to the reins pluckily, and prevented the frightened horses from running away.

The accident was caused by an attempt to turn too short a curve. This is a common error among firemen.

The First in the Market. One of the interesting sights in Fulton market this morning was a consignment of fresh caught Kennebec salmon to Middleton & Carman, the very first that has been received in the market this year. There were eight in all, one of them weighing over twelve pounds, and beauties they were as they laytogether ou the white marble slab, showing their sleek, glistening sides and symmetrical forms.

The first fresh salmon in the market are always regarded as fancy fish, and these, of course, were snapped up early in the morning by eager purchasers. The price at which they were sold was 80 cents a pound. After this time receipts may be expected to be more liberal, and prices will decline, although iresh salmon never becomes a drug on the market.

Twelve-year-old William Lyon was held at the Hs sex Market Court this morning for kmfing ten-year old Isaac Kupfer, and politics is alleged to be the cause of the difficulty. William and other juvenile patriots were celebrating the Democratic victory by a bonfire in Rutgers Square when Isaac, who is auspected of Republican tendencies, came along, was hooted and finally was stabbed in the back. William tearfully said it was an accident.

. M. PALMER'S COMPANY TO DESCEND ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

racts Signed for a Tour Next Summer-Cast of "The Great Pink Pearl" Road-Good Business Done at the Theatres on Election Day-Mr. Sothern May Join the Adonis Club-Coming Changes.

TOUR of the Pacific coast will be made by Manager A. M. Palmer's entire company next summer. next summer, con-tracts to that effect having been made yesterday with Mr. Al. Hayman, of San Francisco. These contracts were simply to carry out an arrangement which was made last year, by which the same company was to visit San Francisco last summer. Owing, however, to the phenomenal success of "Jim the Penman," which scored an eight weeks' run in Boston during the summer, Mr. Hayman consented to allow the Madison Square Company to defer their visit to the Pacific until the coming summer. The contract calls for the complete company, and such plays that may have been produced during the New York season. Mr. Hayman says he would be satisfied with "Jim the Penman," without any other plays, but Mr. Palmer-who like Mr. Daly, is extremely anxious for glory, though by no means despising lucre-desires to show the versalitity of his company by presenting other plays. Besides the tour, in Mr. Hayman's contract. The company's season in Chicago was formerly under the management of Mr. McVicker of that city. Mr. Palmer's people will have a special train provided for them, and will make the trip to San Francisco in three days and a half. It is quite likely that William Gillette will play in "The Great Pink Pearl" in this city during the season. In fact, there is no saying what Mr. Gillette will do, in his overwhelming energy. The cast of the people who are to support him in "The Great Pink Pearl" on the road, includes Charles Bradshaw, Raymond Holmes, William Cotton, Frank Carlyle, Mme. de Naucaze, Miss Leslie, Miss Sydney Cowell, Miss Loring, little Elsie and Hardy Vernon.

It is rumored that Messrs. Robson and Crane will show their versatility by becoming their own managers next year, and that the energetic Mr. Joseph Brooks will have to seek fresh fields. Mr. Brooks has been the manager of this company for three seasons.

The changes which have been made in "Wife" at the Lyceum, render that play far more concise in form. It will stay where it is. Prof. W. Frohman has suspended all the chearsals for subsequent work. There will be no change of programme at Wallack's Theatre for several days. "Caste" still proving exceedingly attractive to large audiences. The rehearsals of "School" are so far advanced that this second of the Robertsonian series will be ready for production next week. Mr. Abbey had been greatly encouraged in his reproduction of these celebrated plays by the large patronage they are evidently intended to create. As soon as "School" is produced, "Forget-McNot" will be put in rehearsal.

M. B. Leavitt has closed a contract with the Hebrew Dramatic Company, which in-cludes sixty-five people from the Oriental Theatre in the Bowery, for a tour of thirty-five weeks, starting at Boston and playing in the principal cities en route for the Pacific slope.
